DRY POWDER FIRE EXTINGUISHERS

Dry powder fire extinguishers are highly versatile and effective, capable of tackling nearly all fire types, including direct use on live electrical equipment. Unlike foam extinguishers, they can be used on 'running' flammable liquid fires and are suitable for outdoor use in temperatures as low as -20°C without needing additional freeze protection. We offer a 6kg unit with a fire rating of 43A 233B C and a 9kg unit with a fire rating of 55A 233B C. Both units are Kitemarked and come with a full 5-year warranty for reliability and peace of mind.
